> Lemonee, Rubenstein, Ed Easton and Bucyrus the Winners Yesterday-Hest Time 2:09 3-4.

> The Indianapolis Driving Club's sixth race meeting opened yesterday with gratifying success. There must have been over four thousand people present, and considering the many attractions of the day the attendance was encouraging. The gentlemen who compose the driving club deserve well of the citizenry of Indianapolis. They have given of their means to establish here a track bettered by none in the country. They should have their reward. The possession of a recognized reputable trotting track has brought thousands of dollars to many cities in the country, and it will be the fault of the people of Indianapolis if, through lack of patronage, they allow such an attractive branch of sport to die of indifference. Let the stand and paddock at the race track be crowded each and all of the next four days.

No records were broken yesterday, but the racing was of an entirely satisfactory character, and two of the finishes were excitingly close. The best time recorded was in the second heat of the 2:12 pace, when Ed Easton, plloted by Ed Geers, covered the mile in 2:09% in a whipping finish, with three horses lapping the winner.

Starter Frank B. Walker did his work in fine style, and there was little trickiness of any kind shown. The races were fairly run throughout, though many must have felt considerable surprise at seeing Rowdy Joe distanced in the opening heat of the 2:12 pace. By the way, it was a "sidewheeler" day and the lateral gaited aristocracy won the admiration of the crowd. The track was just a trifle slow after the wetting it got on Sunday, but the drivers who went over it for the first time yesterday declared that, under favorable date, with tweive-year-old Miss Edna Harris up. But the horse was the cars after a long ride only on Sunday were changed. These facts were against ols fulfilling his contract, but after half a lozen trials did a quarter in 30% seconds: Mr. Harris, on a clever little bob-tailed thoroughbred racer, made the pace. Mr. Harris declares that to-day Albatross will go against his and the world's record for half a mile for a pacer under saddle, and last night said that if the track is in the condition he expects it to be in Albatross will chop at least 14 off his 1:001/2. It is certainly worth a trip to the track to see little Miss Harris manage the great bay pacer from Michigan. THE 2:30 TROT. The horses were called promptly at 1 o'clock, and haif an hour later the 2:30 trot was started, the following horses passing the flag: Belva, b. m.; by Artemas, owned by R. Barrett, Knightstown, Ind; Eva Clay, gr. m., by Fire Clay, owned by W. H. Robbins, Greensburg, Ind.; Lemonee, b. f., by Wilton, owned by D. Thomas, Paris, Ky.; Marea, s. m., by Hambrino, property of the Grassland farm, Indianapolis; Ofelb. s., by Ellerslie Wilkes, owned by F. J. Williamson, Muncie, Ind.; Rolly Ryan, gr. g., by Wade Hampton, owned by J. F. McKinney, Sheibyville, Ky. After scoring three times the half dozen got away in a fairly good start. Ten yards from the starting point Ofellus and Rolly Ryan both broke, but the son of Wade Hampton quickly recovered his feet and drew away from the bunch to the quarter, where he was overhauled and headed by Lemonee, going in perfect form. To the haif both norses ran close together, but when the stables were cleared Doug Thomas had the bay filly well ahead, and from that point kept his lead, landing Lemonee an easy-going winner in 2:28%. Rolly Ryan came in second, followed by Ofellus, and pole again, Rolly Ryan running him hard and getting a nose ahead of him at the ahead as before, and came in an easy first in seven seconds' better time than in the first eighth, and she circled the course in the same time as in the preceding heat, finishing pulled up. There was a pretty contest for second place in this heat between Rolly Ryan and Ofellus for some time, but the Indiana stallion was too much for the Kentucky gelding. Lemonee got first money, Rolly Ryan second and Ofelius

THE 2:25 PACE. The 2:25 pace brought out a field of eight Allegro, b. m., by Alcantara, owned by Charles Kerner, Binghamton, N. Y.; Col. Thornton, b. s., by Onward, owned by P. down the board and went to bed. N. Walthen, Lebanon, Ky.; F. M. B. A., rn. g., by Hazel Hill, owned by S. J. Fleming. Terre Haute; Whirligig, br. f., by Wilco, the property of D. Thomas, Paris, Ky.; Morella, b. m., by Tennessee Wilkes, of the Village farm, Aurora, N. Y.; Rubenstein, by Baron Wilkes, property of Laird & Bailey, Mansfield, O.; Sable Gift, br. s., by Gift, ir., owned by W. H. Goddard, Muncle, Ind.; Tommie Brown, b. g., by Scott's Hambrino, owned by T. E. Brown, Indian Palls The quartet got away in a bunch, Morelia going to the front, where she kept till challenged by Rubenstein, wao pulled out after passing the three-quarter mark, and, in-creasing his lead as he came into the last eighth, finished an easy wioner in the commendable time of 2:11%.

In the second heat the horses ran in an eight-linked chain from the first eighth, the son of Baron Wilkes leading all the way and winning in the same time as in the first heat. Sable Gift and Colonel Thornton had a neck-and-neck race from the seven-eighths post for second place, both passing the judges under the whip, the Muncie stallion just enough ahead to get the place.

The third heat was almost a repetition of the second. Matt Laird got Rubenstein away in great shape and at the pole, though he was pluckily challenged by Col. Thornton, and the first half was given out as covered in 1:03. Onward's son fell off after the half for a bit, but in the finishing eighth got up again, and for half a second the crowd thought it would see a close finish, but that was driver Matt's little joke and Rubenstein won the heat and race in easy going. THE EVENT OF THE DAY. The third race was the race of the daythe 2:12 pace, and it brought out a field of thirteen, only three of the nominations being withdrawn. These were the baker's dozen that waited on Mr. Walker's word: Coleridge, b. h., by C. F. Clay, owned by Hardy & Custer, Logansport; Direction, blk. s., by Director, the property of Budd Doble, Chicago; Christo Queen, b. m., by Monte Christo, owned by W. J. Young, Lexington, Ky.; Jack Bowers, b. g., by Kilbuck Tom, owned by V. L. Weakley, Mansfield, O.; Menegain, br. m., by Menelaus, jr., owned by S. E. Sanders, Kemper, Ill.; Bullmont, g. g., by Blue Skin, owned by J. G. Taylor, St. Louis, Mo.; Two Strike, g. g., by Ferguson, owned by W. A. Paxton, Omaha, Neb.; Hyannis, b. s., by Patron, owned by C. F. Emery, Cleveland, O.; Rowdy Joe, rn. g. by Telegraph, property of Fred Blatter, Mexico, Mo.; Josie B., b. m., by Chatterbox, owned by J. D. Grover, Georgetown, Ky.; Ed Easton, br. s., by Chimes, from the Village farm, Buffalo, N. Y.; Cambridge Giri, ch. m., by American Boy, owned by V. tegrated Builmont and Direction were seen leading away and running a pretty duet, almost neck and neck to the half post,

AT THE RACE TRACK but the St. Louis gray couldn't keep the pace, and fell back passing the stables, and Johnny Dickerson brought in Budd Doble's stallion a hard goer in the last eighth, the time being given at 2:104.

THE DRIVING CLUB'S MEETING In the second heat the side-wheelers went of in a rushing hunch and all the way off in a rushing bunch, and all the way round Direction, Guerita, Coleridge and Ed Easton kept together in the lead, and were brought home in a whipping finish that roused the crowd to enthusiasm, Ed Gears getting the Buffalo brown first past the judges, and winning the heat in the best time made during the day—2:00%.

The third heat was also a somewhat exciting contest. Christo Queen got the adwhere she was overtaken by Ed Easton and passed. Direction broke at the three-quarter post and fell back. Ed Easton won in 2:12. Johnnie Dickerson, who drove Direction, lodged a protest with the judges that Grimes, behind Guerita, fouled him. The Terre Haute driver was certainly badpocketed in the heat, but the judges threw out the protest.

The fourth heat decided the race, and was won by Ed Easton in comparative ease, his time being 2:13. Summary:

TWO-YEAR-OLD TROT. The last race on the day's card, for twoyear-olds eligible to 2:50 trot, brought out a field of only five out of twenty-four nominations, but it was as interesting as any event of the day. These are the names of the quintet: Bucyrus, b. f., by Wilton, owned by Bowerman Brothers, Lexington, Ky.; Charlie G., b. g., by Almont Brunswick, owned by A. F. Glidden, Raleigh, Ind.; Eagle Pass, rn. g., by Eagle Bird, owned by W. J. Young, Lexington, Ky.; Emerson Clark, blk. h., by Princeer, owned by L. H. Van Meter, Springfield, O.; Valley Joe, b. f., by Vasco, owned by J. R. Bascom & Son, Sharpsburg, Ky. Bueyrus got the pole in the start, but Charlie G. was close with him at the quar-ter and running wheel and wheel. Mike Bowerman forged his way ahead at the circumstances, it must be very fast, and great things are expected of it to-day.

A feature of yesterday's card, outside of the class events, was the appearance of the pacer Albatross, announced to go a mile under saddle, with twelve-year-old all right for third place, but broke in the last eighth and fell back to fourth, Charley The second and deciding heat started just like the first, but Bucyrus left Charlie G. behind before reaching the half and came in a winner pulled up. Time-2:23%, 2:25%. HOW THE POOLS RAN. Betting on the track was spirited, and money in moderate sums passed freely into the hands of the bookmakers. Pools were sold by three different firms. In the first race, the 2:30 trot, Lemonee sold against the field in the auctions, bringing about even money. In the books Lemonee was 3 to 2 in the first heat, but, in the last two heats, it becoming evident that he outclassed the others, he was barred. Ofellus and Rolly Ryan were put up at 3 to 5 each. from the start in both pools and book. The pacer clearly outclassed everything in the race. Whirligig and Colonel Thornton brought about even money. In the books Colonel Thornton sold at even money. Allegro was 3 to 1 and Sable Gift, the brown stallion from Muncie, was knocked off at 4 to 1. In the third race, the 2:12 pace, Cole ridge was quickly made a favorite at even money. Rowdy Joe, as second choice, was marked up at 3 to 2. Direction was 5 to 1 and Ed Easton went easily at 5 to 1. In the second heat Ed Easton was on the board at 10 to 1. The others brought longer prices and the entire field was played. fourth race Bucyrus was, at the start, a decided favorite. In the first heat he was 3 to 10, but was barred in the second. Eagle Pass brought even money, and Valley Joe, in the second heat, was marked on the boards at 3 to 2 Horsemen and their followers were active at the Grand Hotel last night. The secretary's office was a busy place until 10 o'clock, and was the favorite resort with the man who had a grievance. Budd Doble, the "prince of horsemen," lounged about the corridors, pulling vigorously at his stubby cigar, his hands thrust deep into the capacious pockets of his freshly-creased trousers. Mr. Doble has little to say at any time, and does not talk shop away from the track. Entries for to-day's races were late in coming in, much to the disgust of Mr. Wil liam Flynn, of score-card fame, and the bookmakers downstairs. Mr. Flynn registered early in the evening a strong objec-tion to the manner in which the Driving Club conducts its affairs, and, after a spir ited round with Secretary Graves, retired to the solace of the poolroom about the lobbies when it was found that Joe Patchen had been withdrawn from the 2:20 pace. J. G. Taylor withdrew the black flyer because of the fact that he is to meet Robert J. on Thursday. Rather than overwork the horse, Taylor forfeited his Pools on to-day's races were unusually sluggish last night. Bookmakers were late in securing a list of the starters, and was nearly 9 o'clock before the profession: patrons of auctioneer Fitzgerald began to float up from the barroom. For an hour the auctioneer extolled the virtues of several favorites, but at 10 o'clock pulled In the 2:16 trot and the 2:30 pace no were sold, many of the horses being apparently unknown. In the 2:20 pace T. N. B., a gray gelding, owned by Sam Fleming, of Terre Haute, sold at $10, the field selling at $6. In the 2:45 pacing class, to which two-year-olds are eligible, the field sold for $7, Luella Shawhan and Phenom selling in a combination pool at $13.

PROGRAMME FOR TO-DAY. To-day's card is better than yesterday's and good sport may confidently be expected. The class events are all filled by the best of trotting and pacing stock. Albatross will go a half mile against his record and the world's of 1:001/2, and be ridden by little Miss Edna Harris, a twelve-year-old equestrienne, whose performance is unique in the world to-day. The great special event of the day will be the attempt of Directly, the wonderful two-year-old pacer, to lower his record which is also the world's, of 2:10%, and among the knowing ones last evening opinion was unanimous that his chances of securing a new record are very promising. The Great Event This Afternoon. In addition to the four regular races announced for to-day, the special event, to which great interest attaches, will be the effort of the pacing wonder, Directly, to lower the world's record for two-year-olds, 2:10%, made by himself at Chicago week before last. Directly is a little black horse by Direct, 2:051/4, and gives promise of being the fastest pacer in the world. But little had been heard of him until a month ago, when he paced in 2:12 over a notably bad track at Buffalo. Afterwards he equaled this time at Chicago, and three days later lowered it one and a quarter seconds. He will be sent in a special trial to-day, with a running mate, and if the track is in good condition there is reason to believe that he will go in better time than 2:10. If he lowers the

THE COUNCIL'S WORK.

Legality of a Holiday Meeting Discussed and a Special Session Called.

The Council met last night and argued upon the question of the legality of anything it might do, and then adjourned without doing anything at all. A message was received from the Mayor announcing his approval of the ordinance providing for the printing of the revised ordinances, granting permission to produce the "Last Days of Pompell" without license, and changing the time of beginning the fiscal year. He also approved the resolution inviting the Knights of Pythias to hold their next encampment in this city.

A communication from Controller Trusler was read showing the unexpended balances to the credit of the various funds which can be used by the department during the four months intervening between the present time and Jan. 1, the beginning of the new fiscal year. With it came a request from the Board of Public Works to the controller which was approved by the controller that the board be allowed $2,600 instead of $1,600 for sewers during the four-month period. The request was received and filed.

tion ordinance ready for passage, but a after all of them were debated it was finally decided to save all questions by not passing the ordinance at the meeting last night. The first question sprung was whether it would be legal to transact any business at all on a legal holiday. Then the question was raised as to the power of the Council to pass the ordinance under a suspension of the rules, as all of the members of the body were not present. The city is in absolute need of the money, as has none at all and the general appropriations are not available till Jan. 1. tions by calling a special meeting. The communication of the controller was then formally referred to the finance commitee and a meeting of the Council called for 10 o'clock this morning. The appropria-tion ordinance was read for the first time at last night's meeting and will come up for passage at the meeting this morning. In this way the necessity for suspending the rules is avoided.

THE M'KINLEY MEETING.

Indications of a Large Attendance-Specia! Railroad Rates.

Indications point to an enormously large attendance at the great McKinley meeting in this city on Sept. 25, and the chances are that it will be one of the greatest political demonstrations since the campaign of 1888. The secretary of the State committee has assurance that the Central Traffic Association will probably grant a half rate from all points in the State, and excursions will be run from nearly all the neighboring cities.
C. N. Williams, of Crawfordsville, was in the city yesterday morning negotiating with the Big Four people for a special train of twenty cars from that city. They expect to bring over about twelve hundred Republicans with the Morton Republican Club, the famous organization that brought eighteen hundred Republicans here to see Blaine in 1884.

Nearly two hundred teachers gathered at the hall of the House of Representatives yesterday to attend the annual session of the Marion County Teachers' Institute. There were some informal discussions during the morning and at the afternoon session "The Science of Teaching" was the topic talked about. Prof. George W. He thought that the way to develop the idea of numbers in a child's mind was to ask him questions suggesting the subject with which it was desired to fa-miliarize him. Prof. W. H. Elstun, of this city, addressed the institute on "Language," as it was identified with the science of teaching. A. J. TREAT'S FORTY-SIXTH SEMI-ANNUAL OPENING. A Little Talk on the Present Change

That Have Taken Place in the House. In announcing the forty-sixth semi-annual exhibition of foreign and domestic fabrics for fall and winter wear Mr. Treat takes great pleasure in the knowledge that the changes effected in the present establishment are in keeping with the lines so closely followed by the leading Eastern

The art now of properly dressing a man in the fashion of the day requires something beyond the "guaranteed fit" and the best materials for making and lining. These, of course, are necessary adjuncts to the trade and must be adhered to, but the marked progress that has claimed the attention of the well-dressed man of to-day, and brought into noticeable s the careful attention given to the little details that go to make up fashionable garments. The size and shape of the lapels, the length of the collar and the notch in the same, the finishing of the edges and button holes, the spacing of the outtons, the arrangement of the cuffs and shapeliness of the sleeves, all these minute details have been made a study in the Eastern houses and are to be carefully followed out and reproduced in exactness by Mr. Treat. This house has long held sway in the field of fashion throughout the West, and field of fashion throughout the West, and it is no idle boast for them to claim equal distinction with the Eastern tailors in their fashioning of garments.

Mr. Louis M. Gray, the head of the cutting department, who recently severed his connection with the George W. Palmes Tailoring Company, of St. Paul, was secured to fill the position he occupied six years ago with the old firm of Egan & Treat. Mr. Gray is a well-known figure in the cutting world in the East as well as in the West, and when it became known that he was contemplating a change from that he was contemplating a change from the Northwest he received tempting offers from F. L. Dunne, of Boston, and Tappen & Pierson, of New York. They were new fields, however, and Indianapolis having once been his home he was induced to return to the Hoosler capital, where, dur-ing his former residence, he made many A resume of the prevailing fashions and proper cut of garments seems unnecessary ments will be built in accordance with the demands and requirements of advanced ideas with enough originality to do away with that cast-iron stiffness of fashion plates and journals.
